Let's make currency conversion easy

Ensure your customer knows the benefits of paying in their currency. The terminal automatically detects eligible cards.

- The value shown is the 'Final Amount' in their currency including the mark-up
- The price is calculated at today's 'Exchange Rate' and will not change
- The rate used is covered by 'Elavon's Best Rate' and should they find a better rate with their card issuer, Elavon will refund any difference*

Here's some great answers to customers questions

Your customers asks	Your response
What is best for me?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Many of our customers like to pay in their own currency as they get the final amount today. - Many of our customers like to pay in their own currency so they get today's exchange rate locked in.
What is the difference?	By leaving the amount in Pounds, your bank may convert the transaction at a later date, with their exchange rate and any fees. However, paying in your currency today means you get today's exchange rate, including the mark-up as shown on your receipt, so you'll know the final amount, this is what will appear on your statement.
